Amy Petrone, CSCE Administrative Assistant	Tom Loto, Chair of the CT Chapter of the ASCE Environmental & Water Resources Institute

1. Recent / Upcoming CSCE Board Managed Events

- Dinner Meeting Feedback - CSCE has received some feedback about recent dinner meetings related to ending them earlier. In response, CSCE is going to aim to start the CSCE introductions portion at about 6:50 p.m., start the speaker at about 7:00 p.m., and have the meetings end at about 8:00 p.m.
- March 5 Webinar on ASCE MOSAIC (Members of Society Advancing an Inclusive Culture) - Someone who attended this event was interested in being a representative from CSCE to this Committee.

2. Reports from Technical Group/Institute/Committee Chairs/Fairfield County Branch

- ASCE Geo-Institute - Connecticut Valley Chapter – The registration for the April 19th Geotechnical Seminar at TPC River Highlands is on track with last year’s levels. Sponsors have registered and exhibit tables have sold out. Speakers and topics are looking good.
- Fairfield County Branch – CSCE could set up a call next week. A couple of people are interested in volunteering with the Branch. Jose Infante Corona may be interested in helping with it. Carolyn Foston will reach out to Aaron Foster and Rich Cohen about the call.
- Younger Member Group:
  - The YMG recently held resume reviews at the University of Hartford and the University of Connecticut. The YMG is underbudget so far with spending on those events. It is getting ready for a resume review at Quinnipiac University on April 4 and one at CCSU on April 11.
  - Industry 101 will be held at the University of New Haven in conjunction with a crossover engineering event with a fraternity.
  - A spring social is tentatively scheduled for April 25.
  - The trip to a Quinnipiac Hockey game on March 1 was successful.

3. Other Business – DPH Code Advisory Committee – Scott Nolan’s colleague is interested in joining the DPH Code Advisory Committee since he is interested in advising DPH from an engineering perspective. Scott Nolan will send information about this topic to Aaron Foster.

With no more business to discuss, the meeting adjourned at 12:20 p.m.
