ICE HKA Annual Conference 2021

Infrastructure Development for Post-COVID-19 Era

Established in 1818 in London, the Institution of Civil Engineers (ICE) is the first professional engineering body in the world. Since obtaining its Royal Charter in 1828, it has expanded considerably and now has more than 90,000 members across the world.

Conference's theme

Lessons learnt and experience gained in the COVID-19 pandemic from stakeholders of the construction industry to meet new challenges arisen including provision of critical medical facilities in a short time; adoption of technologies and measures to maintain implementation of infrastructure developments with minimal personnel and enhance communication while maintaining social distancing in workplaces; rethink of urban design and mode of commute; development of recovery plans; as well as making the city more resilient.
